

SUBWAY

While we tend to ignore Jared, it is hard to ignore Subway because it's everywhere. That's why Vanier got its very own one like any respectful college.

It's convenient and everybody can find something they are going to like since you can pretty much make your own fresh and healthy sandwich, and they even tell you how many calories are in it.

They also sell delicious cookies that will melt in your mouth. It is however the only restaurant not located in the main building and is in the (not so) far away building N.

AROUND VANIER

You might find yourself with some extra time between classes and you want to eat something specific. Lucky for you because there are a bunch of restaurants around Vanier that can satisfy any kind of craving.

KFC/Taco Bell

A crossover nobody asked for but we got it anyway so if you're curious or simply want chicken, tacos or both at the same time you might as well go check it out.

McDonald's

Always a safe bet when you want quick and good fast food at any time of the day for any meal. The classic chicken McNuggets can sustain any human for a day or at the very least a few hours.

Pizza Pizza

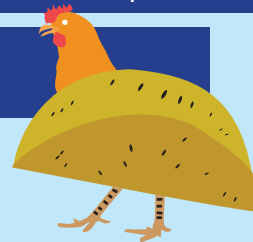

They are so passionate about pizza that it's in their name twice.

Decarie Hot Dog

If you ever have a craving for steamies, this is the place to go to.

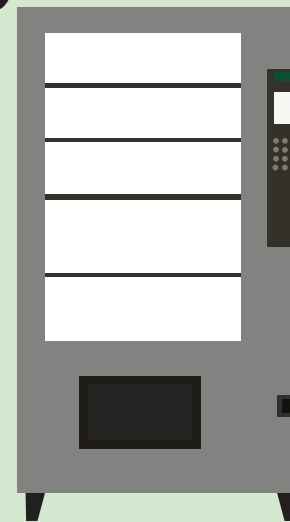

Vai Burger

They offer a wild array of burgers.

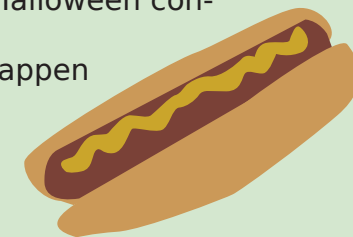

VENDING MACHINES

In a hurry and don't have time to wait in line ? Or in the mood for a little snack ? The often forgotten vending machine is here to save you. Some accept credit cards but it is advised to have some change on you just in case. The only downside to them is that it can be pricey compared to the prices in store, especially the drinks so use them for tummy rumbling emergencies only.

EXTRA EVENTS

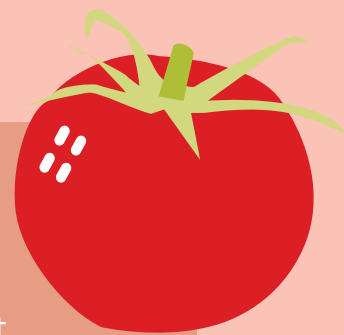

Vanier is also full of great surprises and you might stumble upon a rare event in the college. So stay on the lookout and you might be able to find the very rare hot dog stand in the main building that only appears once a year. Or a bake sale or Halloween contest. Unfortunately most of these events happen at the beginning of the year

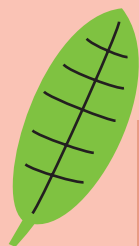

JAKE'S CAFE

A cafe in harmony with Vanier because it uses the vegetables from the community garden and hire students so it is the place to go to support your college. (Go Cheetahs!)

It offers a wide range of dishes that can't be found everywhere like for example soup if you're afraid to break a tooth. They have something for any time of the day

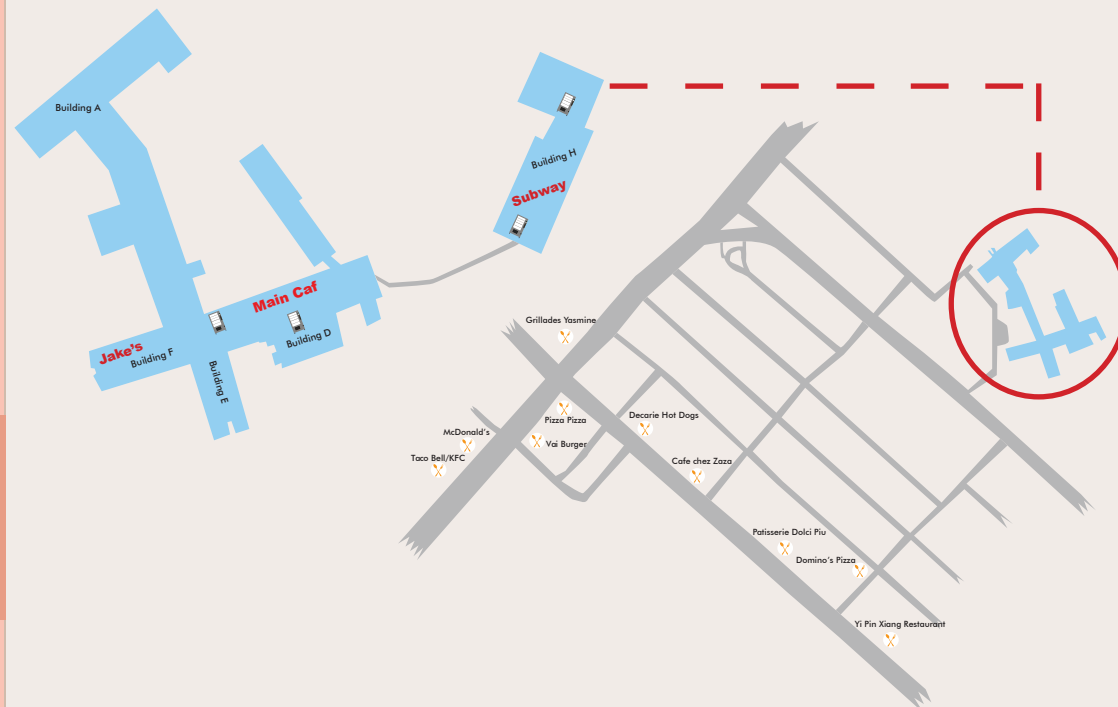

MAIN CAF

This is the perfect place for a warm meal within Vanier. They also offer some asian dishes which is a rare commodity in Vanier as well as chicken wraps, popcorn chicken, stir fries, sweets and sodas.

MAPS

You wouldn't want to get lost around Vanier while you look for food. Here's a map with everything you need to find in and around the school, like restaurants and vending machines.

A SURVIVAL GUIDE ON HOW TO GET FOOD

Greetings new student and welcome to Vanier, a place where you are going to spend most of your week for the next few years. Some could say it's a second home, some could say it's like an office, either way you need to be fed at either places. So here's a list of places where you can find many things to eat at affordable prices (for a student, so below the average notion of affordable)
